

FROM THE COURT ROOM TO THE FRONT LINE OF EPPF

Judge Abuye Ayalw has joined EPPF Fighter to fight against this evil dictatorship

Date: 25 February 2009

EPPF is working effectively throughout Ethiopia through its existing network base to involve Ethiopians from all walks of life and to fight against this TPLF Tyranny to keep Ethiopia as one.

On February 2009 one of Ethiopian judge Abuye Ayalew from Ebilet Regain court, south of Gondar have joined EPPF front line to fight against the TPLF dictatorship, with the language that TPLF understand, through the Barolo of the gun.

For the past six years Abuye Ayalw has been work as a Judge. While he was still in Ethiopian Abuye Ayalw have been involved within EPPF network to organizing various activities.

Now Judge Abuye Ayalw have decided to put down his pen and paper and packed up the gun to fight and free Ethiopian people from this political, economical, social tangle of our country and to help established a concrete unity, justice, democracy and equality for the Ethiopian people.

To watch Judge Abuye Ayalw story and other interviews, who joined recently the front line of EPPF please keep on visiting EPPF website.

Unity is a power

EPPF